SECTION A: FELONY BAIL SCHEDULE

PART 1: RULES

RULE 1: Setting Bail

- A. Bail for felony crimes will be set as follows:
1. The amount set in the approved arrest warrant;
  2. The amount set pursuant to 1269c P.C. (See Rule 6(A) herein);
  3. The amount set by the on-call daytime/nighttime Judge;
  4. The amount set at a hearing in court; and / or
  5. The amount set through use of this Bail Schedule.
- B. The Felony Bail Schedule consists of four parts:
1. The “Rules”;
  2. The “General Bail Amounts Chart”;
  3. The “Special Bail Amounts”; and
  4. The “Bail Amounts for Enhancements.”
- C. Review all Rules. Review the “General Bail Amounts Chart” section. Review the “Special Bail Amounts” section. If the bail amount is different, the higher amount applies.
- D. To calculate bail on any one case, take the count which imposes the longest term of incarceration, find the bail amount from the “General Bail Amounts Chart” section. Check the “Special Bail Amounts” section. If there is a conflict, use the larger sum. Next, add bail for all enhancements. The calculation is per case. For example, if a person has three cases and the bail is $5,000 on one case, $75,000 on another case, and $25,000 on a third case, then the person must post three separate bonds, one for each case, in order to be released.

RULE 2: No Bail

Murder with special circumstances will not be admitted to bail.

RULE 3: Attempts, Etc.

The following felony offenses will have a bail amount equal to the substantive offense, which was the object of the conspiracy, solicitation or attempt.

Section 182 P.C. (Conspiracy)
Section 653(F) P.C. (Solicitation)
Section 664 P.C. (Attempt)

Note: 182/187 PC: The bail is $1 million, even if special circumstances are alleged.

Note: 32 PC: The bail is half the amount for the substantive crime, but no less than 10,000.

RULE 4: Multiple Counts, Multiple Cases

A. Multiple Counts in a Single Case:

1. Unless the circumstances in (A)(2)-(4) are present, the single highest bail plus all applicable enhancements shall apply.
2. If the charges occur on different occasions or involve different victims, separate bail amounts apply and those amounts are to be added together to calculate the appropriate bail amount.
3. Bail for serious or violent felonies, as enumerated in Penal Code 1192.7(c) and 667.5(c), is calculated separately and added together to determine the appropriate bail amount.
4. For sex crimes, bail for each charge is calculated separately and added together for the total amount.

B. Multiple Cases: Calculate the bail for each case separately. A separate bail is required for each separate case.

C. Examples:

1. Two Separate Complaints Filed: Defendant steals a car, then one month later is charged with selling narcotics. Each crime is charged in a different case. Bail is calculated separately, and two separate bail bonds are required – one for each case.
2. One Complaint Filed: Defendant assaults one victim and later that day assaults a second unrelated victim (two separate sets of circumstances). The applicable bail amount for each count is calculated and added together to determine the amount of bail. Reason: Multiple victims were assaulted.

3. One Complaint Filed: Defendant robs a store taking money from the register and from a customer. The applicable bail amount for each count is calculated and added together plus bail for any enhancements to determine the amount of bail. Reason: Multiple victims AND both charges are serious and violent.

4. One Complaint Filed: Defendant sells drugs to the victim, and then robs his wallet at gunpoint. He is charged with selling narcotics and robbery. Bail would be based on the robbery, along with any enhancements. Reason: the drug charge is not a serious or violent felony and the crimes did not occur on different occasions or involve multiple victims.

RULE 5: Enhancements / Strikes

A. Enhancements:

Where a felony offense has been committed and one or more punishment enhancements are charged, the bail amount specifically described for each applicable enhancement shall be added cumulatively to the bail set forth for the specified offense. See Part 4, Bail Amounts for Enhancements to Felonies. For unlisted enhancements, see Part 2, The General Bail Amounts Chart.

B. Strikes:

Where it is alleged in the Complaint or Information that there is a strike prior within the meaning of Penal Code Sections 667 and 1170.12 the additional bail shall be calculated as follows:

- (1)(a) If the defendant has previously been convicted of one strike, the bail is enhanced by $50,000.
  - (b) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, the bail is enhanced by $50,000 per strike, if the current crime is a non-serious and non-violent crime.
  - (c) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, and the current crime is non-serious and non-violent, and, if any of the exceptions contained in section 667(e)(C)(i-iv) apply, then the total bail is $1,000,000.
- (2) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more serious or violent felonies and the current crime is a serious or violent felony, then the total bail is $1,000,000.

RULE 6: Bail Increase / Source of Bail Funds

A. Bail Increase (1269c P.C.)

When law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the Bail Schedule is insufficient, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a 1269c P.C. declaration requesting an order setting higher bail. Once a copy of the 1269c P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one shall release the defendant except at the higher requested bail. The arresting officer then has eight (8) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If no Magistrate approved 1269c form is provided to the booking officer within eight (8) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released at the amount of bail as indicated by the Bail Schedule. Any Magistrate approved 1269c form must be filed with the Complaint.

B. Source of Bail Funds (1275.1 P.C.)

When law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that bail has been or may be obtained by felonious means, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a declaration requesting an order pursuant to Section 1275.1 P.C. Once a copy of the 1275.1 P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one may release the defendant. The arresting officer has twenty-four (24) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If a Magistrate approves the 1275.1 P.C. application, the defendant may not be released except upon the order of a Judge after a noticed hearing in Court. If no Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form is provided to the booking officer within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released upon whatever bail is set. Any Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form must be filed with the Complaint or filed with the court if the complaint has already been filed.

RULE 7: Violation of Probation / Mandatory Supervision

Probation:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of felony probation shall be no bail.

Mandatory Supervision:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of mandatory supervision shall be no bail.

RULE 8: Economic Loss

If the alleged economic loss is greater than the bail schedule, the bail shall be the amount of the loss, rounded to the next higher thousand-dollar level; i.e., if the economic loss is $58,423, the bail is $59,000.

Adjustments to the scheduled bail amounts are within the discretion of each judge, taking into account the defendant's prior record, including, but not limited to, additional pending warrants, failures to appear in court, violation of probation, and the nature of the instant offense.
